

WKNRTHE STATION THAT KNOWS DETROIT*KNORR BROADCASTING CORPORATION

Thank you very much:

Alsac and WKNR appreciates your efforts in making the Alsac Appreciation Show a success; such a success in fact, the lineup of talent for this show surpasses anything ever done before in this country.

Because of the large number of separate acts, we must adhere to a strict time schedule. We intend to keep the length of the show under three hours. So you are asked to be on stage no longer than 10 minutes. If you do two, three, or four numbers, that's alright, but you must stay within the time limitation.

Our primary concern regarding time is because of the additional expense that will be incurred by Alsac because of overtime for union workers. Since Alsac funds are derived from contributions, it is only fair that we attempt to keep these expenses to a minimum.

Once again, our sincerest thanks for a job well done. Perhaps we'll be able to have the honor of your appearing at the Alsac Show next year.

It is requested, to lessen difficulties with crowds following the show, that each act, when it has finished performing, leave the hall. Last year we experienced difficulty getting talent out of the hall after the show. It will save wear & tear on your clothing and your transportation, if you do leave once you have completed your part of the show.
